VOLUME IV

MARIA HIGH SCHOOL

6727 South California Avenue Chicago, Illinois

Come, Holy Spirit, with God the Son,
And God the Father ever One:
By every power, by heart and tongue,
By act and deed, Thy praise be sung:
Inflame with perfect love each sense,
That other souls may kindle thence.

O Holy Spirit, Impart To Us Thy Seven-Fold Gifts

Dedication

His Eminence

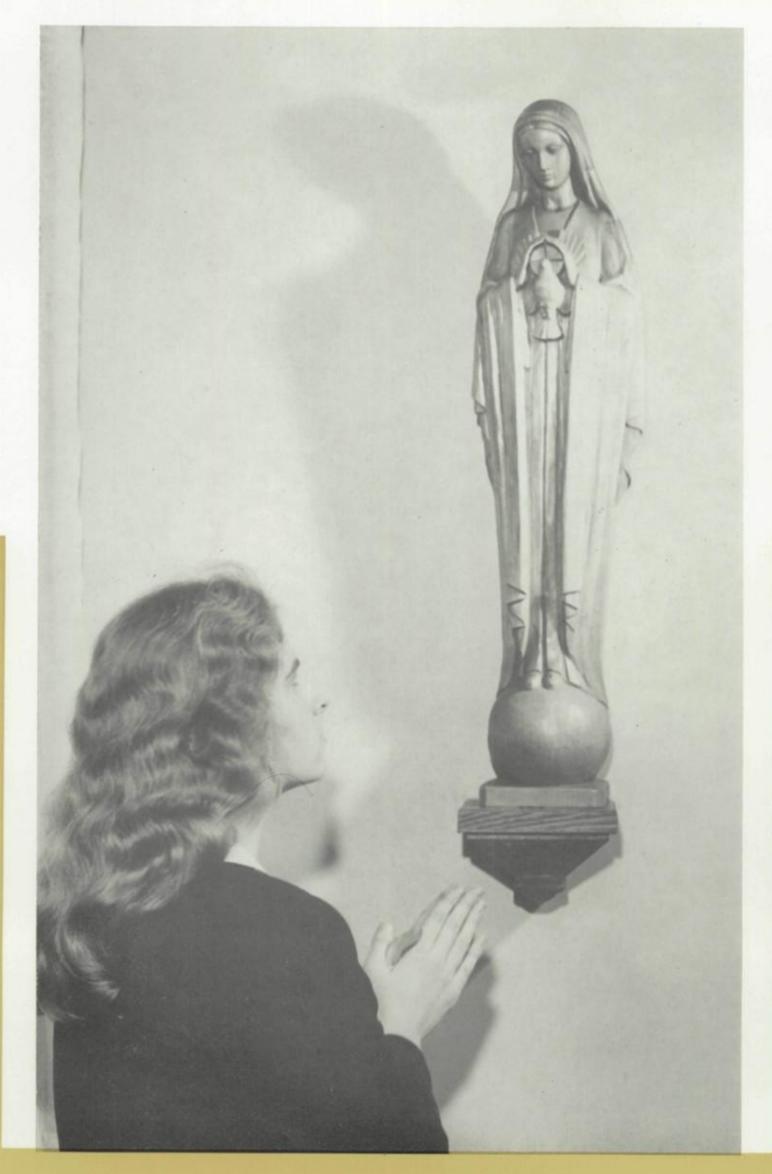

Albert Gregory Cardinal Meyer

"... RECEIVE THE RED HAT... by which you must show yourself to be steadfast even to death... for the exaltation of the Holy Faith,... for peace and tranquillity among all Christian people, and for the welfare of the Holy Roman Church, in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost." Thus Pope John XXIII, by the power of the Holy Spirit, creates another Cardinal.

Albert Gregory Meyer, Cardinal-Archbishop of Chicago, devoted son of the Church, is Shepherd of more than two million Catholics in the Archdiocese of Chicago. Cardinal Meyer has been endowed by the Holy Spirit with a knowledge of truth and strength to defend it. He leads a vast army of crusaders seeking perfection through the Holy Spirit. Our Maria High School comprises only a fraction of that legion pledging devotion to our new Cardinal and his work in the Church. The Cardinal's motto, "Thy Kingdom Come," is activated through the inspiration of the Holy Spirit.

To this new Prince of the Church and guardian of the Cross, Albert Gregory Cardinal Meyer, we dedicate the 1960 MARIA.

"Holy Mary, Chaste Spouse of the Holy Spirit, help me to keep spotless the temple of the Divine Spirit within me."

May The Power Of The Holy Spirit Be Ever With Us!

We, Maria students of today, are now training for the staggering task of forging a tomorrow of peace. Our future will give to us exactly what we have to offer it in return. Hence, we wield the natural endowments of youth—courage . . . idealism . . . zeal—and petition the Holy Spirit to become our Divine Master. Through Him we are given a direction and purpose in shaping our tomorrow.

In WISDOM we turn to things eternal: With UNDERSTANDING we see the light of divine truth;

By COUNSEL we choose to please Him; May FORTITUDE aid us to bear our cro

May FORTITUDE aid us to bear our cross with courage:

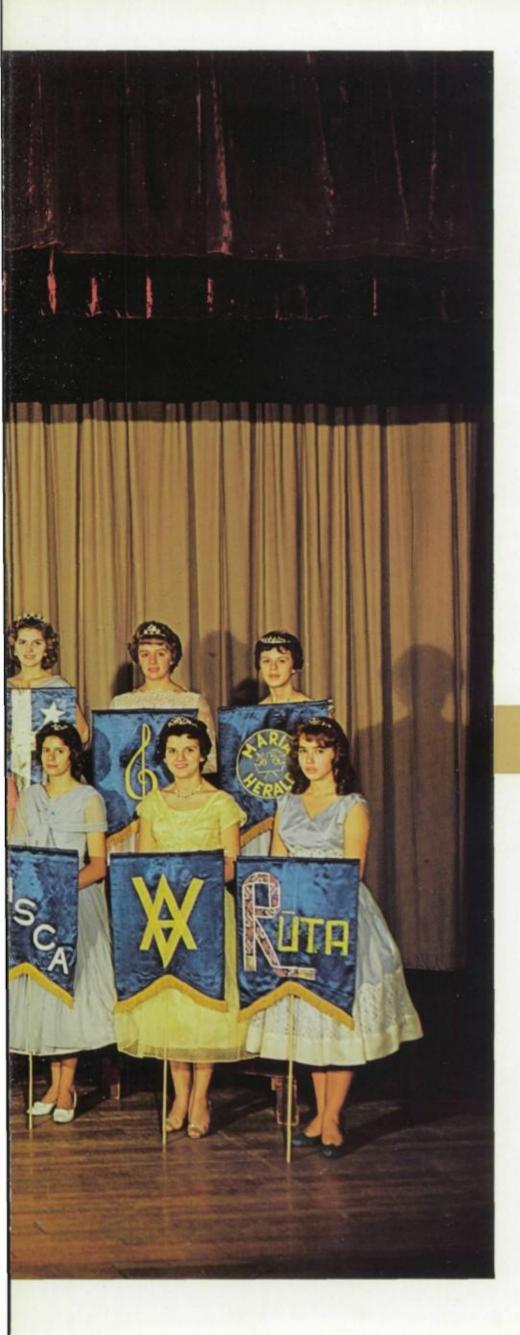

Our KNOWLEDGE reflects one wish, to know God, and to perfect ourselves:

The FEAR of displeasing Him—our only dread;

From PIETY we savor the sweet taste of service in love.

Seven-jold Gifts of the Holy Spirit, rule our every action with a never-ending tribute to God, in Whom is all fulfillment!

Christ Holds Court

CHRIST, LORD OF GLORY. CHRIST, PRINCE OF NATIONS. CHRIST, OUR KING OF KINGS.

These words, familiar to all Maria students, are an integral part of a most important event in our school year—the consecration of Maria to Christ the King.

LORD JESUS CHRIST, BE ACKNOW-LEDGED AS KING OVER THY HOLY CATHOLIC CHURCH...IN PARTICULAR, OUR ARCHDIOCESE OF CHICAGO... AND THIS OUR MARIA HIGH SCHOOL.

Emblazoned banners of various organizations play a significant part in the ceremony because, in a sense, they represent the girls who are the life of those organizations—the heart of this consecration.

TO HIM ONLY BE POWER, TRIUMPH AND GLORY, UNENDING CONQUEST, UNCHANGING EVER FOR ENDLESS AGES

Now, it remains for us to be true to this pledge—a source of further honor to the King of Love and the Spirit of Truth.

OUR GUIDES

Cornerstones

Maria's Administrative Directors, motivated by the Holy Spirit, strive to instill Catholic ideals into the pattern of our lives. Their self-sacrificing spirit, dedicated to organizing and advising, is marked by their willingness to share past experiences. Under a general design, aimed at developing the seven gifts of the Holy Spirit, they designate paths upon which the faculty sets the steps of the students. The manifold aspects of their work are carried out with the zeal of those joyfully realizing their state of life.

OUR FRIENDS

Come Holy Spirit, Take Possession Of Our Souls!

CLASS OF 1960

Senior Class Officers

Kathleen Dennesaites, Vice-President

Our graduation culminates four years at Maria. We cross Maria's treasured threshold for the last time, aware that all high school events are but memories. Momentous incidents of yesterday now seem trifling and insignificant.

These days, however, have contributed more than just memories. Enlightened by dedicated and assiduous teachers, we have advanced to clearer perception of truth. Today, we are better equipped to surmount life's obstacles. Catholic principles implanted here will govern our actions in quandaries and predicaments. Maria High School has truly opened doors we never knew existed.

The future remains obscure, but by seeking to perpetuate the Gifts of the Paraclete in our hearts, we will procure His invaluable assistance. May we never terminate this intimacy with the Holy Spirit so that He may ever lead us safely beneath His Sacred Wings!

A Word To The Graduates

When you received your diploma, it was a sign that you have satisfactorily completed the education and training Maria High School has offered to you. This was a specialized education and training because it was built around you—a young girl who would soon have to take her place in the world as a woman.

When you accepted that diploma, it was a sign that you intend to live up to all the ideals of womanhood which were proposed to you. Your school can explain the ideals, but you have to live them. This is a tremendous responsibility, because what you are will affect not only yourself, but everyone with whom you come in contact. But remember—you are not alone, Mary—Queen of all women . . . Mother of God . . . Spouse of the Holy Spirit—is interested in you personally. Place your complete confidence in her, and your womanhood will be your eternal crown of glory.

- Father John C. Malin

JUNIOR CLASS

Enthusiasm and service characterize Junior Class Officers: Marianne Koziol, Activities Co-chairman; Mary Glynn, President; Marie Biel, Secretary; Ruth Sose, Activities Co-chairman; Marilyn Walton, Vicepresident; Margaret Kearney, Treasurer.

Upperclass maturity makes us aware of charity—guiding force in our quest for happiness. Our lives revolve around the Holy Spirit, source of inspiration and love.

Inquiring minds, resuming their endless search for knowledge, answer the beckoning call to advancement. We aspire towards the culminating ideal of our predecessors—achieving true Christian womanhood. As loyal representatives of Maria, we continue to uphold the principles of our Catholic training.

The junior spirit of generosity takes root within us—to provide for the seniors Ring Day memories and Class Day farewells. Faithfully we carry the torch of service and follow the path which it illumines. Eager anticipation becomes our stepping stone as we embark on the threshold of senior leadership. Fervently our hearts implore: "Holy Spirit, abide with us forever!"

SOPHOMORE CLASS

We return as sophomores to Maria—the school dedicated to the spouse of the Holy Spirit—with the bubble-and-bounce ambition of a freshie, tempered by a new-found gravity. Through these corridors we travel—hallways now reflecting familiar sights and faces. As sophomores, we pursue knowledge filled with a fascination all its own: a world of spirogyra, transversals, algae, the "Nevermore" of the Raven and—most of all—the truths of our Redemption.

We advance to womanhood through the guidance of the Holy Spirit—spiritually, in the study of the fruits and gifts of the Holy Spirit; scholastically, in our first attempts at specialization of knowledge; and socially, at our first sponsored affair—the Valentine Dance.

Our mission is to conquer the fears of an adult world. Our goal—to reach the epitome of spiritual perfection inspired by the Holy Spirit, eminent Guide and Giver of Gifts.

FRESHMAN CLASS

We come to Maria, fresh and eager for new learning. If preconceived ideas of glamour and good times were entertained in our minds, we soon discover that high school is a time for maturing and facing reality. Our freshman year revolves around the intricate figures of algebra, classic quotations of Shakespeare, and the doctrines and traditions of our Catholic faith.

The Holy Spirit permeates our school day in the serene atmosphere of Maria's soul-calming chapel. Here all confusion and anxiety is forgotten and confidence is restored. Here, too, each problem is resolved.

Our willingness to work is evidenced in every challenge that comes our way. With undaunted spirit we hold our heads high and follow the praiseworthy example of upperclassmen.

Faithfully we repeat this prayer: Holy Spirit, guide us through this first year and continue to aid us, until we reach the pinnacle of high school life—our senior year and true womanhood.

OUR SCHOOL LIFE

Spirit Of Light, Of Love, And Of Life, Be With Us Every Hour Of This Day!

Cornerstone of Christian Living

Religion II Students: Mary Louise Scalise, Anele Binderis, Eleanor Jancauskas, and Martha Banzen, journey through Jerusalem on the routes followed by Christ.

Religion—foundation of all true education is an indispensable facet in the training of Christian women. "There can be no ideally perfect education which is not Christian education." (Pope Pius XI)

Viewing the Creative Love, attributed to God the Father . . . investigating the Redeeming Love of God the Son . . . surveying the Sanctifying Love of the Holy Spirit—we discover the magnificence of God's love for man. Our four years of religion training provide for us preparation also in Christian social principles.

The highest goal in life is the bliss that will be the reward of a life guided by the love of God. However, we must know and believe before we can desire or love. Under the surveillance of the Divine Trainer of souls, the Holy Spirit, we turn from darkness to light. Complete knowledge and application of our holy religion—such is our foremost and ultimate objective.

Papal Encyclicals, the modern-day epistles, are studied by Religion III students.

A "Good Shepherd" in his own right, Father Malin points out certain dangers in mixed marriages to Barbara Kassen, Nancy Judd, Christine Razaitis, Barbara Scanlan, and Adrienne Alberts.

Bonnie Daunis discovers that Father Lohmann's key to success is his confidence-inspiring informality.

Seriousness of purpose denotes the spirit that is retreat.

Fervent Meditation . . . Sincere Self-Evaluation

Fervent preparation leads to sincere reparation,

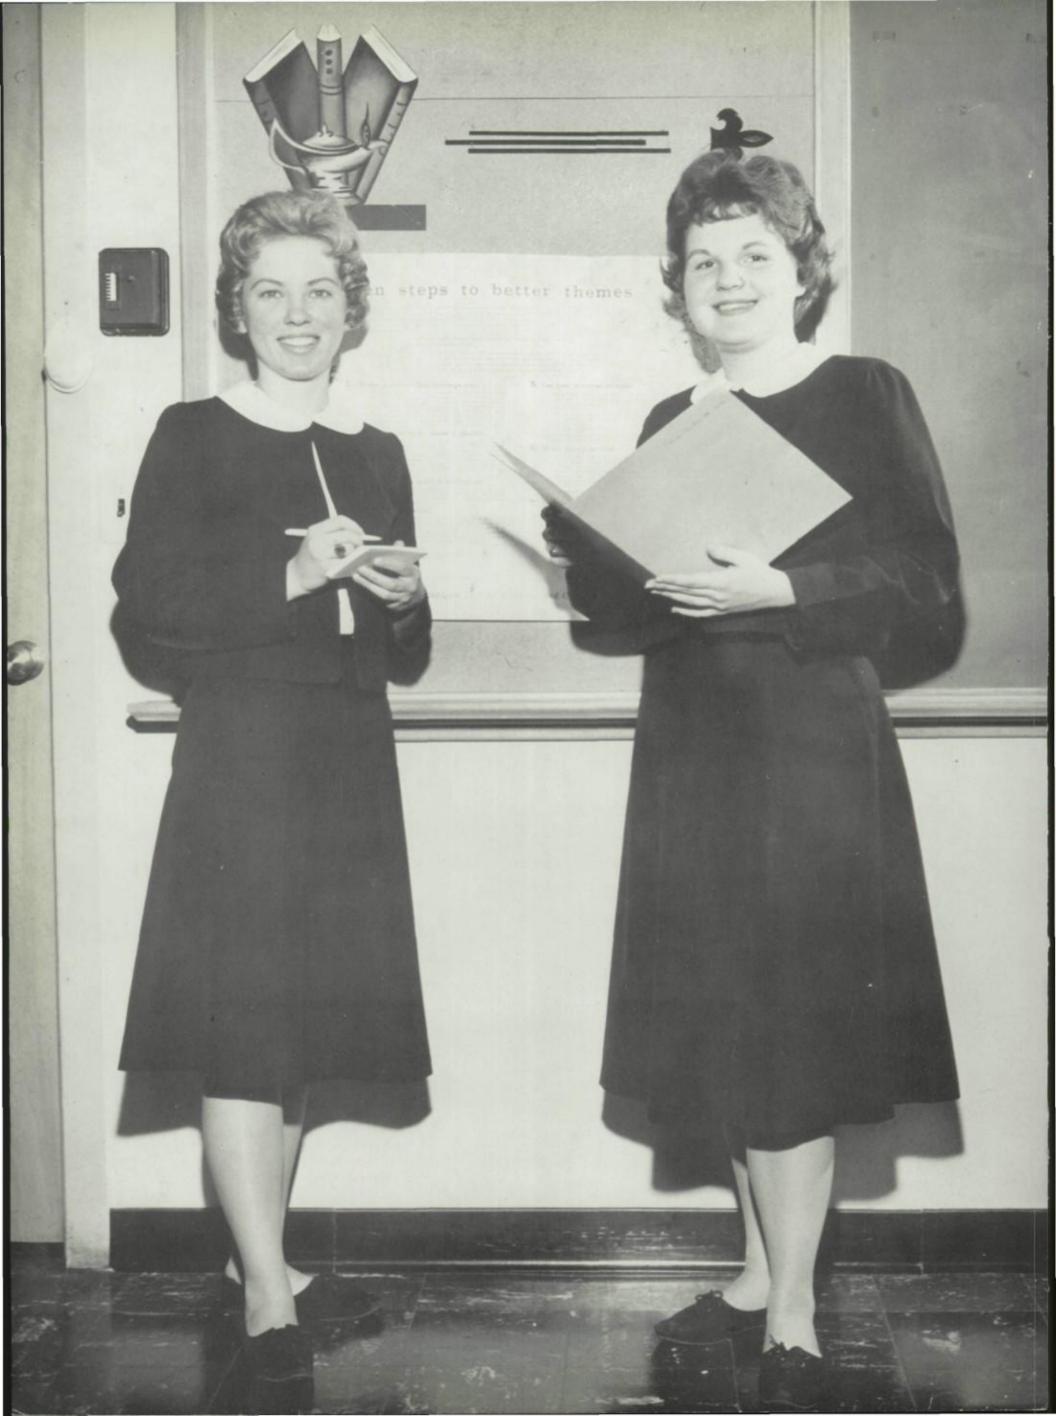

Learn to love—this is the great lesson presented to us by Father Bernard Lohmann, C.S.P., on the occasion of the annual retreat during the week of January 18 to 22.

Love—infinite, supreme—is the heritage left us by our Father. Love—peaceful, encompassing —is the redeeming gift bought for us by our Saviour's blood. Love—ever-present, steadfast is the guiding light always with us in the Spirit.

In view of all this, we look with retrospection upon our lives. We question: Can we do less than return to Him, in the words of Thomas Merton, "the love of those creatures who are drawn to Him, in and with His own love for Himself?"

Father Lohmann has that rare talent of appealing to his audience: Victoria Matutis, Antoinette Willis, Aldona Winskunas, Lorraine Novak, Rosemary Madeja, Adelle Kazlauskas, and Bonnie Daunis.

Literature . . . God's Gift of Communication

Catholic Digest cash awards and the satisfaction of seeing their own words in print, thrill Frances Jordan and Mary Ann Cherney.

Over countless centuries man has recorded but mere flecks of the affluent rays of Wisdom which the Holy Spirit diffuses, Mankind seeks to convey gifts of inspiration with language—ageless bond of communication. To capture the beauty and power of a fleeting moment, then record it in native tongue for all ages to come—this is literature.

Understanding personalities of the past and present through their treasures of literature becomes the quest of the Maria English student. As an apprentice in the art of self-expression, she aspires to experience the fire of other men's genius. Maria's mastery of English is achieved through discussion . . . analysis . . . exploration . . . experimentation in all aspects of our language.

Perfect speech, true comprehension, excellent writing technique, flawless grammar—all are the foundation and essence of a Catholic education, equipping us to appreciate and to create beauty... to reflect Our Lord's Magnificence.

Term-paper smiles of Elaine Thomas and Patricia Sereika radiate enthusiasm and purpose.

Miss Miriam Korten shines a smile as bright as her teaching techniques in English I and II.

Living . . . Voicing Christ's Truths

Kathleen Dennesaites beams and dreams with trophy securely in hand.

Entreaty in behalf of the Savior brings to contemplation characters of "A Child Is Born" played by Kathleen Dennesaites, Dolores Skukas, Adrienne Giedraitis, Sharon Chapon, Grace Angelico, and Carol Sargant.

Climax of "The Charm Racket," Loyola Drama Festival winner, draws tears and moans from thespians: Kathleen Dennesaites, Paula Belskis, Claudia Kobey, Mary Lou Hovezak, Diane Hurley, and Ruth Sose. Speech—art of forceful conviction and gentle persuasion, equips us, the instruments of the Holy Spirit, to voice our ideals—the aim of Catholic womanhood. Dramatic interpretations, public orations, and everyday conversations provide the opportunities for developing self-assurance, clear thinking, and individuality. The Maria student grows strong on such food of the intellect, becoming a spokesman for virtue and truth. Mastering the true art of speaking, Maria's speech student is able to impress the influence of the Holy Spirit on an unabashed, unscrupulous world of speech.

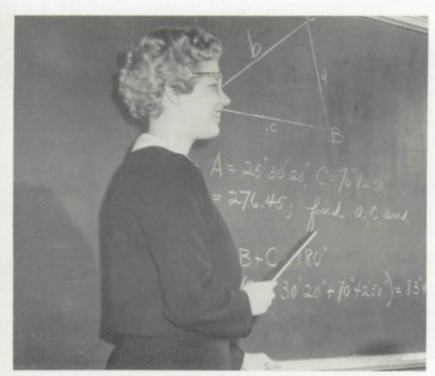

We, whom God has gifted with the mechanism of speech, vie for the privilege of serving Him. The power of the tongue is mighty—may we always direct toward a noble end!

Computing The Vastness of God's Creation

Diane Peters happily plays the role of teacher in Trigonometry.

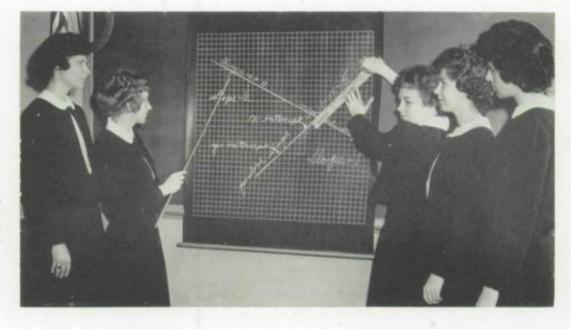

The cosmos of science admits of but one key to unlock the many secrets of the finite and the infinite—but one link to join all the various fields of scientific study. This key . . . this link, is mathematics, exclusive realm of polygons and binomials, sines and parabolas.

The Maria mathematician, motivated by logical reasoning, accepts the challenge to probe the deeper mysteries of life. Unknown quantities unravel before her, and she begins to gain an understanding of the boundless perfection of God.

Through knowledge, fortitude, and prudence, mathematics stimulates her mind to inquiry, her labors to constancy, and her will to choice of Everlasting Truth.

Leonida Kanavolas, Brigitta Volkovits, Carole Weick find that combined efforts provide the best results in this perplexing geometric puzzle.

"A piece of chalk, a confusing graph, and thou!" jokes Patricia Carey (center) to fellow mathematicians: Joanne Gregutis, Shirley Fitzgerald, Regina Pocius, and Sharon Lemieux.

Electrolysis yields hydrogen, oxy-en, and satisfaction for Aldona Vinskunas.

To understand the world about us-such is the strong motivation and desire of man. Scientists, in working towards this goal, rely primarily on observation, experimentation, and accurate, logical thinking.

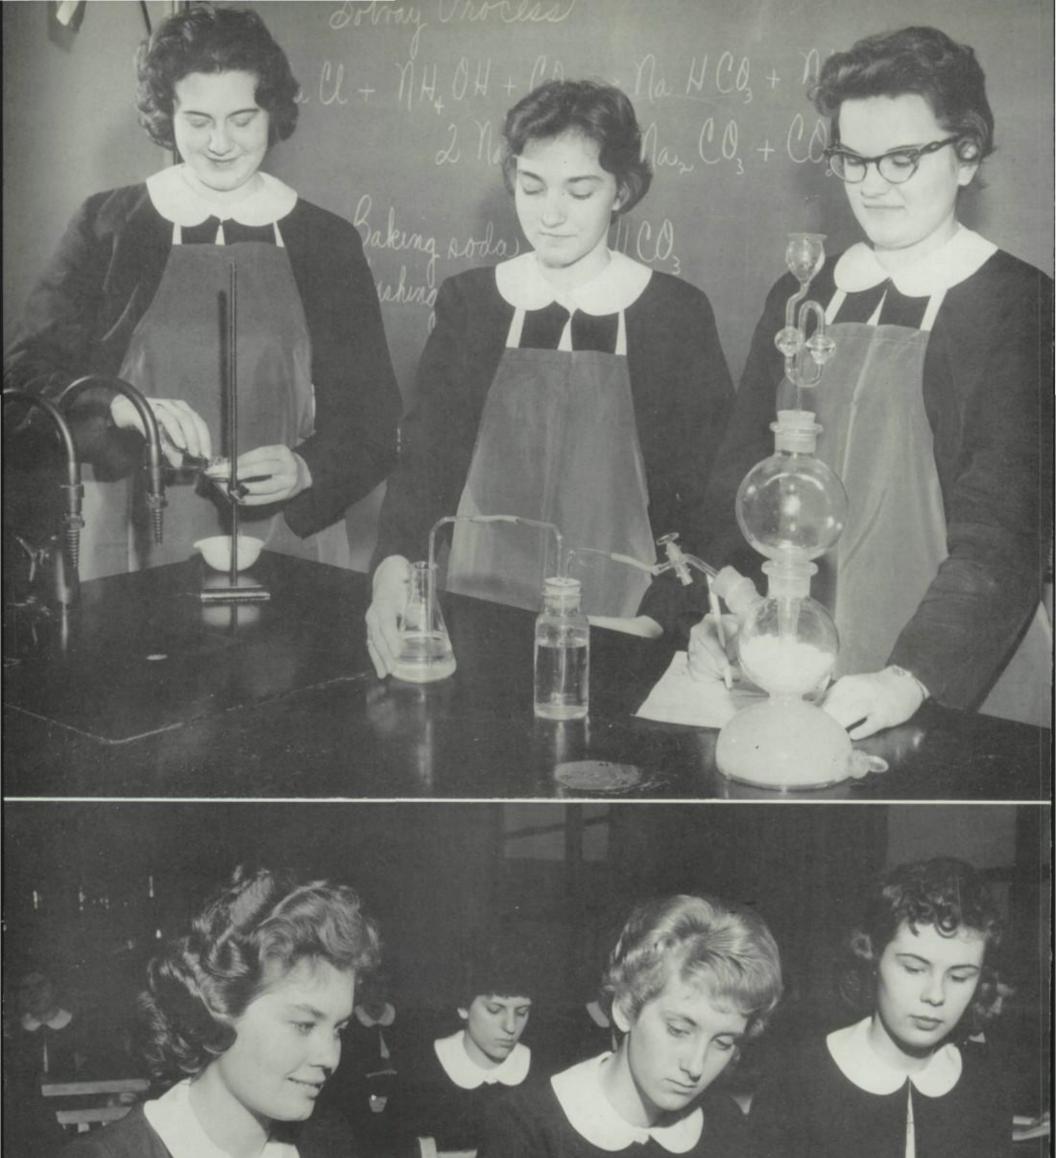

Frequently, however, God is entirely forgotten in this pursuit of supremacy over nature. Maria's science department strives to help us discern God in all things. The science department faculty endeavors to awaken latent interest and talent in the various sciences. The excitement and challenge of participation and competition is experienced by biology and general science students through annual science fairs. Maria's chemists and physicists respond to the thrill of discovery when they observe and experiment as they probe the secrets of science.

The seemingly impossible becomes reality when the assistance of the Holy Spirit is sought and procured. The more we probe the mysteries of nature, the more we apprehend our total dependence on God, greatest Scientist of all.

God's Voice Revealed in Many Tongues

Curios of old Mexico in artistic display are surveyed by Margarita Rudis and Shirley Pranaitis.

As the Holy Spirit once descended on the Apostles and imparted to them the gift of tongues, so now the Holy Spirit hovers over each Maria language scholar.

Down the Appian Way into the great Rome of Cæsar, Cicero, and Virgil, the Latin student guided by the Holy Spirit investigates the past seat of ancient world culture. The tranquil gardens of the Louvre, blended with soft pleasing strains of the spoken word, come alive for the French student. Flamenco, bull fights, and a fiery language bring closer the land and people of Spain. The Baltic "land of wayside crosses" transmits to the Lithuanian student a breath of her beloved heritage.

The task of enlightenment accomplished, the Holy Spirit then proceeds to assist His protegee to "Go and teach all nations" and set the world on fire with the knowledge and love of God.

OUR GOVERNMENT

Drama of Civilization

Anne Marie Tecza and Janice Ohner contemplate the historical significance of their impending Springfield trip.

Local and judicial government is analyzed by freshman social science students: Patricia Cervak, Helen Guditis, Margaret Shankor, Doria Malanchuk, and Claudette Gall.

American History students: Joan Petreikis, Gloria Strzelczyk, Balbina Smalarz, Charlene Yurkus, Joyce Toleikis, and Mildred Nigrelli, view the residents past and present— of the White House.

American History students: Margaret Yesulaitis, Regina Valaitis, Carol Shimkus, and Judith Bakotic, scrutinize an integral document in the formation of our nation — the Declaration of Independence.

"The Lord God planted a garden in Eden, to the east, and He put there the man He had formed." Here begins the history of humanity.

Maria's apprentice sociologists delve into this world of prehistoric society and witness its progress through the centuries, observing the eternal indwelling of the Holy Spirit in hearts and minds. Inspired by this Source of Light, man advances in knowledge, understanding, and wisdom, constantly striving to attain perfection in all undertakings.

From darkness and seclusion to democracy and socialism, from caves and huts to apartments and palaces—civilization has ever risen to a higher political and social status.

Maria historians acknowledge the presence of the Paraclete and experience His directing Light. As in the past, so now, He is still Helmsman of conscience . . . equity . . . truth.

Prelude To Christian Home Life

Asian flu strikes again and home nurses, Maryann King and Laimute Kerulis, show their ability to care for the patient, Eleanore Lewis.

Helen Galinaitis and Joyce Moravek cape a smiling Marjorie Nocco, designer of the ensemble. "Develop the whole person to form the true and perfect Christian." This recommendation by Pope Pius XI affords us the rich potentialities of deepening Christian principles and augmenting our preparation for family living. Homemaking achieves this objective. The varied aspects of this study enable the homemaker of tomorrow to assume her share of family responsibility now, and to prepare for the future life of a Christian wife and mother.

The Maria girl seeks to acquire dexterity in the widely diversified facets of cooking, housekeeping, sewing, child care, and nursing competence. Thus she exemplifies the standards set by our Blessed Lady of Perfect Christian Living. Upon completion of her development, she emerges a prototype of true womanhood to take her place in the society of the Christian Home.

The intricacies of a pattern pose no problem for these seamstresses—Maria Rucys, Rita Goodrow, Josephine Rakunas, Patricia Nardi, Donna Callahan, and Irene Venclovas.

A well-prepared meal will be enjoy-ed more if served attractively in grac-ious surroundings proves Dolores Chu-ras to Sorrell Kra-jacic, Winifred Hus-sey, Barbara Virva, and Sandra Sluzas.

Integration of Christian Principles

in Commerce

The wheels of industry rotate with ever-increasing velocity—progress. Cogs in this wheel are the aspiring models of efficiency—the commercial students of Maria,

These career girls bring Christian principles into the business world by taking their places behind typewriters . . . steno pads . . . office machines. Enterprising executives will depend on their poise, confidence, and varied experiences. These qualities have their root in Catholic training, founded and fostered in this ever-advancing department of Maria.

Confident secretaries step into the realm of tomorrow with high hopes, strong beliefs, and a well-rounded outlook. These white collar girls are fortified by the Holy Spirit, Who, in His Infinite Wisdom, inspires the heads and hearts of the world of commerce.

A profile in progress is Barbara Chepul.

All wrapped up in ribbons are Carol Ann Lotkowski and Mary Ann Sokol.

"Have recorder . . . will transcribe" is aptly applied to Mary Murphy, Lucille Pokrzywa, Barbara Virva, Nancy Antonacci and Gail Maag.

Reflection of Divine Perfection

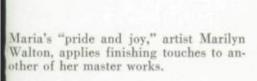

Baubles . . . bangles . . . ingenuity equal headpieces for The King and I made and displayed by Katherine Colasurdo and Sheila Ann Green.

A drop of paint, a stroke of charcoal, the luster of glazes allow the artist to express her most intimate sentiments. These, however, are only tangible media leading to ultimate union with the Holy Spirit. Coupled with the brilliance of His inspiration on the painter's easel, these modes reflect the unending splendor of our Maker.

In His desire to embrace us with His burning love, the Holy Spirit assists the Maria art student in utilizing her talents. Individual interpretation of beauty is evidenced by the countless designs and creative schemes throughout the school. Dramatic and musical productions, classroom and corridor displays—all exhibit forms of Maria's artistic genius.

Finally, amidst all these endeavors, there is the growth of the individual personality of the student. In her effort to acquire a variety of techniques and improvise on traditional ones, she realizes her ultimate goal of personal union with her Creator.

Highest Form of Praise to the Holy Spirit

A talented new addition to the Music faculty is conductor, Mrs. Emily Wolf.

Music — volumes of fervent harmony, vibrating with emotions of the human soul — seeks fulfillment through expression of its Creator's essence. With moods as varied as the human heart, music throbs its message, be it engulfing sorrow or glowing rapture.

Maria's music rises as a common voice in continuous adulation to God. Her separate programs become as movements, inspired by the Holy Spirit, each with its own distinct personality and purpose, yet blending in accord to comprise a finished symphony of love.

Maria's voice reflects exaltation befitting a coronation of "Christ the King"... her soul rings with joy, and she bursts forth to commemorate the Christmas season, His Holy Birth. With a dash of vivacity to quicken the heart, Maria dips into fantasy with "The King and I." Jubilation floods the spring air — and thanksgiving the Maria heart, as students sing to Mary crowned Queen of Heaven.

All messages made known through music — instrumental and vocal specializations — aim at perfection of performance.

"Sing my tongue the Savior's glory!"

Carol Bocek enjoys her task as Maria's organ accompanist.

Conditioning the Temple of the Holy Spirit

Steam inhalator offers relief to mock patient, Rosalie Hehn, by Vilune Malioris.

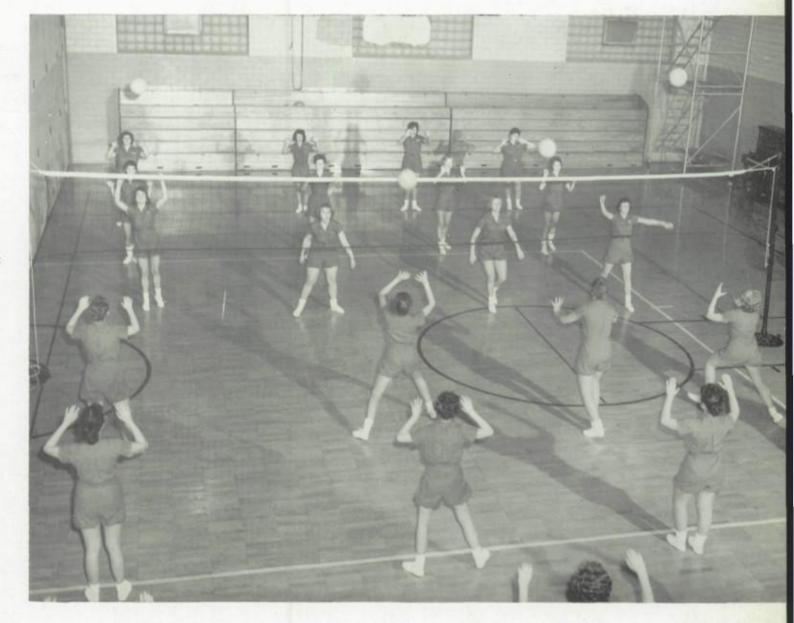

Strength of soul and body are united as Maria's comprehensive curriculum sets the foundations for our future. Healthy souls become invigorated with the wisdom of the Holy Spirit. Sound bodies grow, nourished and sustained by wholesome, physical activity.

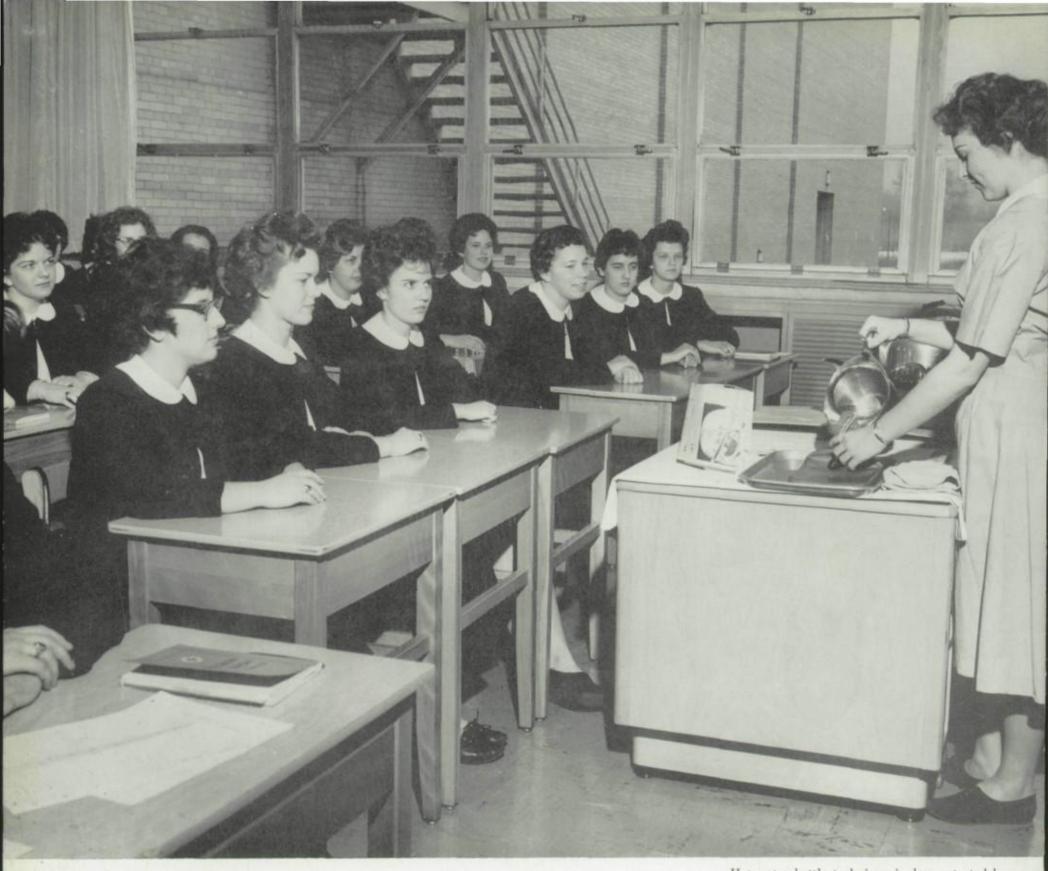

Health and home nursing are proffered to us, as we — helpmates to mankind — become mindful of our womanly responsibilities. Calisthenics, volleyball, basketball — physical education — all set our bodies as a framework for the development of inner qualities.

Physical and mental discipline is emphasized in this process of evolving strong, persevering young women as models of Christian ideals. Mind and heart are made one, attaining for us interior and exterior perfection.

To be a saint and apostle — this is the aim of every sodalist. A sodalist parallels her every action with the teaching of the Catholic Church. In her consecration, she pledges to fight under the standard of the Blessed Virgin Mary to attain Christian perfection and eternal salvation.

Through participation in days of recollection, conventions, and apostolic work, this handmaid of Mary finds strength and increase of love for Mother and Son. Striving to imitate these splendid virtues of the Sublime Temple of the Holy Spirit, each sodalist places all confidence in her Heavenly Mistress. This is her way of life — "To Jesus through Mary."

Maria Resounds with Praises of Our Queen

"Holy Mary, now we crown thee!" With these words all the students of Maria High School acknowledge Mary as glorious Patroness and Queen. This resplendent tribute to the spotless Spouse of the Holy Spirit is renewed on our flower-adorned campus amidst garlands of praise. Our re-enactment of Mary's coronation as Queen of angels and men commences with ceremonious procession and a chorus of jubilant paeans.

Reverently the Sodality prefect crowns Mary with a fragrant circlet — symbol of our love, our gratefulness — climaxing our mainifestations of honor and praise. The solemnity and grandeur of this brilliant spectacle prompt our hearts to overflow with joy and exultation: "Reign forever, dear Mother, as Queen of our country, our school, and our hearts!"

Eucharistic-Our Lady Committee stresses a stronger, fuller devotion to Christ and Mary by sponsoring monthly Holy Hours and emphasizing attendance at Holy Mass. Social Action aims to protect Christian living through spiritual and corporal works of mercy. Motion picture ratings, book reviews, and CISCA NEWS are all supplied by the Literature and Legion of Decency Committees. The Apostolic and Publicity Committees defend and spread Christ's kingdom through mission activities, Christian modesty crusades, stamp drives, and art contests.

The Spirit of Counsel inspires each Maria CISCAN to a better understanding and evaluation of Christian standards of life.

Modesty . . . Womanhood—— One . . . Inseparable

Centuries ago Our Blessed Lady began a crusade for modesty among women. Today S.D.S., our twentieth century organization, is furthering this Crusade in a world of pagan values. By instilling a love for the virtue of purity, S.D.S. strives to restore modern feminine fashions. The loyal S.D.S. crusader, an example of uncompromising convictions, refuses to buy or wear styles which do not adhere to the norms of S.D.S. Thus she creates a great enough demand for modest attractive clothing — Supply the Demand for the Supply.

Promotion of this organization is fostered by meetings, fashion shows, distribution of literature, and other widely diversified activities. Through the S.D.S. Modesty Crusade the Maria girl proves her willingness to fight for her right to be decent. The style-conscious miss, who has made S.D.S. an integral part of her life, exerts the most dynamic influence in winning the world for the Mary and Modesty.

Dedicated to the fundamentals of education, Maria's chapter of the National Honor Society upholds the ideals of CHARACTER, SCHOLARSHIP, LEAD-ERSHIP, and SERVICE. The society realizes that true education must begin with the source of knowledge — God; thus it has placed as the foundation of its ideals — RELIGION.

Looking to the Holy Spirit for inspiration, each N. H. S. member strives to strengthen CHARACTER — perfection in her goal as an humble servant of God's Will; SCHOLARSHIP — her aspiration for intellectual improvement; LEAD-ERSHIP — exemplifying initiative and principle for fellow students; SERVICE — assistance at all times, in all instances to those in need.

Because they have made Religion an integral part of their lives, these students have learned to develop their talents so that some day men shall speak truly of them and say:

"You have served nobly and borne witness to the Light."

Mirror of the Spirit That is MARIA

Genius burns . . . in a rumpled uniform, with a coke at her side, a chewed-off pencil in her fingers, and the ever-present desire to create the "best yearbook yet." There you have the typical Maria yearbook staff member, as she hastens to meet that deadline, incorporating a bit of herself into each page of this diary of high school life.

Finally, after she has worn her typing fingers and creative powers to a nubbin, the long hours of tedious work reach a climax . . . the task is completed. The result is a living treasury of incomparable moments — some grave, some hilarious, all memorable.

With gratitude in her heart, the MARIA staff member directs her prayer to the Spirit of Truth:

Mercifully guard my every thought and grant that I may always watch for Thy light, listen to Thy voice, and follow Thy gracious inspirations.

Business managers, Maureen Glebauskas and Barbara Scanlan, express their satisfaction over a successful day's patron returns. Maria Herald . . .

A chronicle of life . . . a pulse-beat of spirit . . . all that is Maria is reflected in the MARIA HERALD. Every phase of school life finds its way to the HERALD pages to live once more.

Diary of Maria — the HERALD aspires to voice the Holy Spirit by upholding honored traditions of journalism. It examines the way of truth, transmits truth to those whom it serves, safeguards truth established.

As emissary of right, each reporter sees the task of informing, instructing, and entertaining manifested through investigation, interrogation, imagination, and initiative.

School life then extends beyond its walls to the community and to the world. Intellectual and moral virtues are fostered through principles of journalistic practice to mold a competent, democratic American . . . a true child of God.

Fair play, co-ordination, and poise are among the keynotes of the Maria Athletic Club. In school and out, these marks of character are born, develop, and grow, knowing no bounds.

School spirit is stimulated by after-school tournaments — basketball, volleyball, and bowling. Extra-curricular events, such as hikes and sock hops, provide diversion as well as relaxation for club members. Through monthly Mass and Communion the members strengthen a spirit of co-operation and sportsmanship.

Coveted awards merited by the Maria athlete are symbols of her active participation and leadership. The efforts of the outstanding gymnast are duly rewarded with emblem, letter, sweater, and trophy.

Brotherly love — a crimson jewel — is surpassed by nothing in the world. Treasuring this precious gem, Maria's Ruta Club, Junior Red Cross, Office Aides, Library Aides, and Visual Aides perform deeds of geniality, kindness, and service.

Preservation of Lithuanian culture and traditions is the aim of the Ruta Club. Students of this nationality strive to retain their heritage and gladly render service at Lithuanian activities.

Corporal works of mercy predominate in the Junior Red Cross. Aiding those in need and cheering the afflicted, they seek to alleviate their suffering fellow men.

Still another facet of the jewel of charity are the Aides of Maria. Tending to odd jobs behind the scenes of office and stage are Office Aides and Visual Aides. Silent servers, they explore extraneous worlds while lending a helping hand. Another world, one of books, unfolds before the student librarian as she assumes the diversified duties of custodian of literary works.

Through the efforts of our devoted and self-sacrificing mothers, individual talents and ambitions combine to reap spiritual, social, and financial rewarding activities. The inspiring Day of Recollection, diversity of the Holiday Fair, all-popular and exciting bingos, tantalizing smorgasbords, and generous shower of envelopes are fruits of these resourceful minds.

Dads Devoted to Daughters' Interests

The Maria High School Fathers' Club emerges a creditable success upon completion of its first full year of existence. These enterprising fathers have laid the foundation for closer cooperation between parents and faculty.

A comprehensive knowledge of Maria High School, complemented by an interest in the religious and scholastic welfare of their daughters, is fostered through our fathers' noble efforts. Included among the club's endeavors is the provision of financial aid for all these pioneer undertakings.

To interest parents, guardians, and friends in the special problems confronting the Maria student, lectures are offered on Communism, indecent literature, and the attitude of parents in reference to vocations. Unification of all these forces will result in the attainment of their ultimate goal — the Mary-like daughter of today . . . the Christian wife and mother of tomorrow.

Dedicated helpmates of Maria are the inexhaustible members of the Sisters of St. Casimir Auxiliary. These devoted men and women perform every task with an ardent zeal infused by the Holy Spirit. St. Casimir — patron of the auxiliary — is a splendid example of every virtue they strive to acquire for the greater honor and glory of God.

As veterans of charity they have a three-fold intention: to provide scholarships for worthy girls who wish to further their Catholic education; to give financial aid to needy novices and postulants; and to raise other funds for the Sisters of St. Casimir. The auxiliary's members and benefactors are remembered in the Sisters' many supplications throughout the year. With Christ in each heart, auxiliary members persevere in their endeavors toward the betterment of the organization.

Central Officers of the Sisters of St. Casimir Auxiliary are: (Seated) Mrs. B. Kazimieraitis, 3rd Vice-President; Mrs. C. Pocius, Financial Secretary; Mrs. A. Nauseda, President; Mrs. J. Kuzmickas, 1st Vice-President; Miss V. Galnaite, Recording Secretary. (Standing) Miss A. Ivins, Correspondent; Mrs. V. Varpucen, Treasurer; Mrs. U. Gudas, Correspondent; Miss M. Stankus, 2nd Vice-President; Mrs. E. Paulius, Delegate; Mrs. E. Rudys, Delegate.

After thirty-five years of untiring service, these jubilarians prove their generosity and loyalty.

May Mary watch over our Auxiliary friends, who have just completed twenty-five years of faithful service!

Lynn Wilbert, Charlene Jacobs, Anita Sutkus, Rosemarie Walus, Geraldine Thompson, and Judy Langes check in for ID tags and buttons distributed by Sister M. Concetta and Mr. Kohner.

Aggregate of Knowledge, Souvenirs, and Memories

The Senior Class-women of the world!

Quite unlikely that these beaming itinerants will suffer nostalgia!

A rivederci, Chicago!

Three years of anticipation reached fulfillment as Maria's Seniors boarded the train to Washington, D. C. Ahead was a week of touring . . . traveling . . . post-card writing. Washington, under the supervision of Sisters and guides, presented to the Seniors an advantageous opportunity to amass a wealth of knowledge about the citadel of our nation's heritage. Jefferson's and Lincoln's Memorials . . . trips to Mt. Vernon and Annapolis . . . the Franciscan Monastery . . . the National Shrine to the Immaculate Conception . . . added to inspiring and pleasure-filled days.

The rigors of travel were all forgotten in the surge of excitement roused at the sight of glamorous Manhatten. New York's hectic rush, Fifth Avenue's exclusive shops, exotic Times Square and Broadway — all were part of the week's adventures. Finally, amidst a flurry of farewells, Seniors completed another chapter in their volume of memorable events.

Maria Seniors Make Their Debut

The minutes slowly tick by . . . 7:30 . . . 7:45 . . . 8:00 . . . the doorbell rings, your escort is waiting. Your magical dream evening has finally arrived.

Yes, this is the eagerly anticipated night of the Senior-Alumnae Sno-Ball, one of the high points of your final year. From beginning to end you are a fairy princess with your Prince Charming. All too soon that perfect evening becomes only a cherished memory to be revived at the sight of your bid or pressed petal from your corsage. Fortunately, you can again thrill to the sound of music on a crisp winter evening when you attend next year's Sno-Ball as a Maria alumna.

Heads spin, hearts glow, and eyes sparkle at our mid-winter ball of enchantment and fantasy.

Alice Vasilatos and her date reflect an evening of enchantment.

Seniors and their dates whirl and twirl to the end of an unforgettable evening.

Alumnae Sno-Ball Committee members, Rita Soder and Virginia Croke, welcome Judy Callahan, Diane Peters, Gloria Prieskop and their escorts to a gala evening.

Just as good and much prettier than Andy Frain's finest are our Junior usherettes.

Nancy Miskus and her beau radiate the mood of the ball.

Caught in the middle of a delicious meal are Aldona Winskunas, Josephine Jacobs, Maureen Glebauskas, Kathy Kubik and their escorts.

Ring Day smiles of Father John Malin, Bishop Vincent Brizgys, Father Anthony Zakarauskas, and the Senior Class officers light up the breakfast table.

Memory Closest to Heart and Hand

Our class ring — tie that binds us to our beloved Alma Mater; a thing of beauty to keep, honor, and cherish forever. Admiring eyes reverently meditate on the gleaming band with its symbols of charity, faith, and fortitude. The brilliant blue of the stone reflects the innermost beauty of our lovely Mother, resplendent as she calls and beckons her loyal daughters.

Thank you, Maria High, for this symbol of our hopes, achievements, aspirations, and ennobling principles you represent! Proudly we display these rings — grateful to parents, faculty, and, above all, the Holy Spirit for showering abundant blessings on this acme of high school years.

At last . . . this band of gold and blue is ours.

Our class ring—stepping-stone on the stairway of life: (Top to bottom) Hannelore Hattel, Sylvia Romashko, Lorraine Yokup, Carol Sargant, Nancy Antonacci, Grazina Budrys, Linda Lesko, and Gail Maag.

Father Malin and Father Zakarauskas take their place of honor with Alumnae officers at Senior Induction breakfast.

Pledge to Continued Loyalty

"I solemnly pledge myself ever to uphold the principles and ideals of Catholic womanhood." With these words the seniors of Maria promise their loyalty, fidelity, and generosity to their Alma Mater.

The spirit of unity radiating through their faithful hearts will continue through the coming years, as the future alumnae contribute their services to their God and their country with no thought of personal glory.

Senior voices ring out with promises of active participation and loyalty to Maria.

Seniors fervently recite the Alumnae pledge dedicating themselves to their God , . . their country . . . and their Alma Mater.

Expectation . . . Enchantment . . .

Evening Ever-Remembered

A cotillion set in a spring garden . . . an air of enchantment . . . strains of lilting music — the long-looked-forward-to prom is a reality. The garden ballroom is filled with couples swaying to the magic of melody. Each girl is belle of the ball and her escort, man of the hour.

The seconds . . . minutes . . . hours take swift flight. As the clock chimes the final seconds, a veil of darkness falls over the garden . . . the gate slowly closes . . . locking within a Maria maiden's heart this enchanted night.

Joyce Ferkaluk, a prom-princess in a wonderland of spring blossoms.

The beauty of the spring setting is rivaled by the radiant loveliness of Carol Zahorak, Joanne Sliteris, and Shirley Fitzgerald.

The pink and white of flowering blooms and the lush green of Maria's campus lawns provide a perfect frame for these prom belles: Rita Ladzinski, Barbara Klabisch, and Sylvia Romashko.

Drama-The Heartbeat of Maria Life

Blending voices in a medley of King and I lyrics are the Freshman choruses and the choral club.

"Shall we dance," sings Anna to the King, "on a bright cloud of music shall we fly?"

Show business — that magical occupation, the excitement of an opening performance — production managers, directors, stage hands, and technicians busying themselves with last minute check-ups. With the motto, "There are no small parts, only small people," Maria Thespians play roles ranging from leading lady to prop girl with equal enthusiasm. New plays, diversified audiences, and versatile characters prove an exciting challenge to these troupers, whose primary objective is to entertain.

Spell-binding hilarity marked the annual school play, The Little Dog Laughed, which centered on thermometers, energy peaks, and a sophisticated psychology major. On a more spectacular scale, the music and speech departments presented The King and I, a production involving both humor and emotional appeal. This oriental masterpiece of captivating rhythm, brilliant color, and enchanting music enraptured the hearts of all who viewed it.

Teamwork, stamina, and perseverance are attributes adequately applied to the stars of Maria. Their undaunted fortitude, inspired by the Holy Spirit, aids and motivates them to preserve the Catholic ideals of good theatre.

The King And I

"Small House of Uncle Thomas" is presented by Tuptim (Cynthia Sowa) and her chorus: Elrita Dockus, Diane Abel, Rosalie Hehn, Joan Laskey, Barbara Karroll, Monica Stank, Yolanda Tadeusiak, Ann Viana, Margaret O'Connell, Gloria Tatusko, and Josephine Jacobs.

"We work and work from week to week, at the royal Bangkok Academy," sings Anna (Marie De Vivo) to her Siamese pupils.

The hunt is on as Simon of Legree and the sheriffs search for Eliza!

English customs perturb this oriental King (Jay Kienlen) as Andy Kohlstedt kisses the hand of Anna.

The anxious faces of Lady Thiang (Barbara Adamovitz), Louis (Pat Daly), and Prince Chulalongkorn (Mike Zalenka), await the departure decision of Anna.

Anna (Marie De Vivo) bids farewell to Captain Orton (Thomas Bearden) in the opening scene of King and I, Deck hands (Robert Valiga and Jack Yock) remove Anna's belongings.

"Small House of Uncle Thomas" finds Uncle Thomas (Anne McGlone), Little Eva (Gayle Lucas), Topsy (Madonna Ellsworth), and Eliza (Aurelia Balys) "happy people, happy, happy people."

"There is nothing wrong that men shall die," whispers the King in the closing scene.

"Barbarian!" shouts Anna to the King, as his subjects look on in submission. They are Kralahome (Michael Horina). Tuptim, Priests (James Plepel and Jack Gilmore), and the Interpreter (Richard Foys).

"We kiss in a shadow . . . " sing two famous lovers from the King and I, Tuptim (Cynthia Sowa) and Luntha (Dave Chester), unaware of the eyes of Lady Thiang (Barbara Adamovitz).

Peacemakers at work. The stars of the production: Claudia Kobey (back, l.), Patricia Ellison (front, l.), Andy Kohlstedt, Ken Burza, Bill Hart, and Kathleen Dennesaites.

Horatius, (Richard Foys), has found someone who shares his common interest in birdwatching, namely, Paula Belskis. Kathleen Dennesaites reflects her bewilderment.

Paula Belskis, Kathleen Dennesaites, and Ken Burza test for their "energy peaks," while Bill Hart looks on in evident disgust.

The Little Dog Laughed

A hilarious scene from "The Little Dog Laughed." Socialites — Margaret Sileikis, Mary Ellen Biell, Patricia Makar, Kathleen Kaczkowski, and Sandra Typner—are horrified at finding a dead bird in living room, and Eileen Neary becomes embarrassed.

Kathleen Dennesaites, winner of scholarship and gold medal, and Diane Hurley, winner of silver medal, exchange congratulations for their success in the Loyola Drama Festival.

White angel hair and Mary's smile reflect the ethereal beauty of Marilyn Walton's prize-winning masterpiece,

Laurels Through Labor

"We love your banner, we'll do it honor . . ." this is the motivating force of all Maria aspirants to success. Praise and gratitude — fruits of their labors — are accorded the privileged few who bequeath to Maria a legacy of lasting glory. The tributes won for Maria by these students are not lightly acquired. The inspiration of their untiring guides, coupled with the steady plodding of the protege, reap great rewards. Hours of practice and organization have brought trophies . . . pins . . . plaques . . . certificates — all proofs of ardent tasks ventured and won by Maria students.

With a trusting hand placed in that of the Holy Spirit, the Maria-ite of fame and glory carries this honor to her first love — Maria.

Seniors—Patricia Cullen, Giedre Stasiskis, Paula Belskis, Barbara Scanlan, and Rosemary Lukacevich—recipients of a "Letter of Commendation" from the National Merit Scholarship Testing program for outstanding performance, radiate victorious smiles.

A winning smile . . . another winning cup, merited by Kathleen Dennesaites in the Saint Thomas Aquinas Symposium.

Maria's Betty Crocker Homemaker of the Year, Georgia Staros, displays the award she achieved in the realm of homemaking.

"Amamus Latinum" is the maxim of these award-winning Latin students, Kathleen Senica, Mary Glynn, and Janine Konauka.

Getting in the mood to go to a Pacific Paradise are dance committee members: Kathryn Frasor, Olga Petrulis, Marianne Gorman, Carol Mazeika, and Kathy Pavesic.

"Shall We Dance?"

A new school year brings new friendships at the Fall Fantasy.

The Senior's Fall Fantasy starts Maria's swirl of social events during the school year. The Tinsel Twirl picks up the tempo again during the Christmas season, followed by the Ruta Club Dance and the unforgettable Father-Daughter Dance. Sophomores swing into the picture with the hearts and flowers of the Valentine Dance. Seniors change the pace with the Hawaiian theme of Pacific Paradise . . . the Juniors climax the year with their Maypole Medley. Gaiety, laughter, and smooth music prevailed at cach dance, making each a carefree keepsake of this year at Maria.

Highlight of the evening . . . the Queen is crowned by Elizabeth Stephens, Sodality prefect.

Carol Sargant, Rita Carroll, Elizabeth Stephens, and Mary Anna Gercius act as the court, while Eleanor Lewis crowns her dad, King of the Dance.

How could we ever thank you, dad, for all you've done for us? A delightful dance, a soothing sigh, a smile of contentment? Could this repay for the years gone by?

The Sodality of Maria has provided the opportunity to share a few precious moments to be vested in our memories and our hearts to the end of time.

Smiling dads and daughters dance to the strains of all-time favorites.

Who's who, or is it what's what?

Relaxation—Junior Style

"I still say that there's something different about you tonight, Hilda."

Dolores Maezes, Bonita Kriz, Linda Lesko, and Rosemary Lukacevich beam as they don a new look for the evening.

Even when the cat is there, these mice will play.

Freshman Talent Outshines The Green

Graceful as a flower, Eileen Mikutis, makes her Maria debut.

Margaret Beleckis and Victoria Cicero are capable of leading the most famous band anywhere.

Ukrainian dancers, Stephanie Gulych and Irene Krywaczuk, dance to a tune of a lively folk dance.

Karen Specka, Carolyn Schaefer, and Janice Stuiber do an excellent job of reporting the Freshman Talent Show.

Mary Jonikas and Christine Dudenas dance the "Tarantelle" with the precision of experts.

Pledge of Allegiance done to music by Daria Malanchuk, Barbara Janik, Eileen Mikutis, and Rae Therese Durkin.

Our freshie musicians, Glenda Shimkus, Kathryn Lukas, Carolyn Lebno, Connie Strauss, Sharon Remaks, Margaret O'Connor, and Patricia Coughlin, take a bow together.

Mary Ann Griffin, Janice Donn, Sharon Rollings, and Cecelia Balais put Irish colleens to shame.

Orlando Wilson can be proud Maria's chief engineer, Jim of Frank Sepic, Maria's popu- Gash, arrives ready and able to perform all tasks.

Weekly tasks finished, maintenance man, Tony, departs for his "day off".

Through A Candid Camera's Eye

Life at Maria embraces many persons, places, and activities never publicized. Only the lens of a candid camera can capture the true picture of all its aspects. Behind the scenes are many conscientious workers, from the women in the cafeteria to the men and women who keep the school in tip-top shape. All take pride in their work and seek no fame or glory, but rather enjoy their anonymity.

Unheralded, too, are student aides of Campus Shoppe and Snack Bar, bus guards, and usherettes. Their services are utilized in every-day school activities and on many public occasions.

No candid portrait of Maria life would be complete if it omitted the students' daily visit to the chapel. Enhanced by the graces conferred by the Holy Spirit, Marians advance to true Christian womanhood.

Marians love you, Sister M. Trinita, for those delicious French fries.

Following Christ's counsel to feed the hungry are Mary Miknaitis, Jean Kalkowski, Sophie Ausra and Harriet Kauffmann. "What do you want to buy, what do you want to pay? The Campus Shoppe's got it every day," says Sister M. Casimira to Giedre Stasiskis, Patricia Kacinski, Phyllis Dabulsky, Brigitte Adomat, Sandra Szymanski, and Monica Dorman.

Mrs. Frances Ivanauskas never lets a day's accumulation of dishes dampen her spirits.

Marians make the chapel the center of their school life.

"OUR THANK YOU"

We, the editors of the 1960 edition of the MARIA, welcome the opportunity to express our gratitude to all our friends. Perhaps one might call this the "Without-Whose-Help" Department.

The untiring efforts of many people made this edition of the MARIA possible —our moderators, whose inspiration and guidance was an indispensable factor; our staff members, who during long hours of diligent work, compiled this volume; you, students of Maria High School, who are the reason for the creation of the MARIA.

To our commercial friends goes an extra vote of thanks for their patient cooperation and assistance in the myriad phases of yearbook publication: Mr. Norman Koenig of the NORMAN KING CO., INC., Berwyn, for printing and production work; Mr. Anthony Comunale and his staff at MARSHALL STUDIO in downtown Chicago for photography; Mr. Stankus of ALL-STATES PHOTO CO., Chicago, for underclassmen pictures.

It is our sincere hope that these efforts have produced a treasury of campus memories which will constantly elicit happy reminders of our high school years.
